

ă (as in cat)

Robert Bailey

I view my art as an interaction between universe and intuition. These paintings and works on paper focus on primordial space and form. They take their inspiration from imagining the structure of an unknown and undefined universe.

