

From March 6 to March 13, friends of Ron Hayward will be borrowing the space to present

“RON HAYWARD: REMEMBERED IN ART”

Reception Sunday March 7, 2-6pm

Background

Ron Hayward (1943-2009) was a long time fixture on the Detroit art scene, modeling for successive generations of artists, and inspiring a massive legacy of work through his dramatic expressions and poses. This show, curated by colleague and friend Sophia Raptis, pays tribute to Ron, and features the work of approximately 25 area artists, many of whom worked with him over several decades. This show not only serves as a fitting way to remember Ron, but also provides a wide-ranging survey of figurative art in Detroit over the last 30 years.
